OK Freewheel Holds Route Announcement Banquet for 36th Annual Ride

Tulsa, OK, 11/17/2013 — OK Freewheel, Inc. is pleased to announce that for the first time it will hold a banquet to reveal the route for its 2014 cross-state bicycle tour. The banquet will take place January 18, 2014 as the climax of the Oklahoma Bike Summit at the OK Jazz Hall of Fame in Tulsa.

The January 18th banquet will be fully catered and have musical entertainment. Every year OK Freewheel's participants eagerly anticipate what the route will be as excitement builds for their summer adventure.

"We are delighted to hold our first route announcement banquet!" said Joy Hancock, Director of the Freewheel Board of Directors. "Since June of last year our riders have been speculating on where we will go in 2014, and this will be a great way to build on that anticipation."

A silent auction benefitting the bike summit will be held during the banquet. For more information on the 2-day summit, including how to register and an agenda of speakers and events, go to www.okbikesummit.org.

Freewheel's mission is to promote and strengthen cycling tourism in Oklahoma. For more information on this great ride, and to register for all these great events, go to www.okfreewheel.com. Registration for the 2014 ride opens midnight, January 18, 2014.
